When is it okay to download videos online? youtube, facebook, even tiktok, many sites are known byUser-generated high quality void content. But is good downloading videos of these and other sites? In general, if the content is probably copyright a € However, there is a gray area when it comes to things that are found in social networks and other sites, and it also matters what you are going to do with them. Photo Cortesés: Spiffy/E+/Getty Images YouTube is one of the sites from which people mostly want to download videos (or only do the audio of those vines). Your terms of service require that you do not copy, distribute, transmit or sell content that you did not believe that it was uploaded to the site unless you have a writing permission in writing of YouTube or the original creator to do so. However, there are some situations in which the media may be well downloaded. If you already have the life, let's say you are published on your YouTube channel, and do you want to support them? That should be fine. If you are making an answer or parody video and want to refer to another person's content, you may not get into trouble. Videos that have Creative Commons licenses or that are also a public domain are usually well to download. However, it is better not to keep content than someone more believed, especially if it is their intellectual property and are monetizing it. He does not remember that downloading something out of YouTube violates the terms of service regardless of what, but it is not a criminal act to download public domain or distributive vital of Creative Commons. As you take precautions when opening an email that could be a phishing scam, you also need to take precautions when downloading videos in line.
